RPS ISG International Names New Senior Account Manager

Cambridge, MD – March 25, 2010 – RPS ISG International, local provider of business insurance and employee benefits, announces the promotion of Donna Black to Senior Account Manager. With this promotion, Mrs. Black will have primary responsibility for overseeing ISG’s key employee benefits accounts and coordinating all administrative processes during the renewal cycle.

Steve Robinson, Area President of RPS ISG International, recently stated, “Donna has been a valuable part of our success and we are thrilled to promote her to this key position. Our clients understand the importance of service for their employees. It’s why companies choose us to protect their employees and why she has been so successful in retaining our customers year after year.”

Mrs. Black received her B.A. degree from Frostburg State. She was born in Abington, PA and moved to the Eastern Shore of MD while in high school. She currently resides in Talbot County with her husband and is very proud of their two children and three grandchildren.
