

RPS ISG International Named National “Branch of the Year”

Awarded Honor at Risk Placement Services’ National Convention

Charleston, SC – March 30, 2016: Joel Cavaness, President of Itasca, IL-based Risk Placement Services, Inc. (RPS) has presented the “Branch of the Year” award during the annual sales meeting in Charleston, South Carolina to Steve Robinson, Area President of RPS ISG International.

RPS ISG International was recognized for its dedication in insuring local businesses and private clients as well as its expertise in offering Cyber Liability coverages and services companies and their agents across the United States.

Risk Placement Services, a division of Arthur J. Gallagher & Co. has more than 50 locations nationwide. The award is presented annually to the office best demonstrating new sales financial success and growth as well as the retention of existing clients.

Steve Robinson, Area President, praised the employees working in RPS ISG International’s Cambridge and Salisbury offices. “It’s always an honor to be recognized for your hard work, but to our employees and management team, it doesn’t seem like work to us. We truly believe that our mission is to protect our customers’ business like it was our own.”
